THE BROOM

"Truth shall make you free".

This paper is devoted to end war. We expose the war-makers and all activities that finally culminate in war. Hence we expose all fake religious, economic and political activities that cloak the real war preparations.

We all admire a man who says what he thinks — as long as he says it about other people.

Americans, World's choice Pharisees

Open Letter by Salem Bader

September 20th, 1946

Mr. William Griffin
Editor, New York Enquirer
47 Walker Street, New York 3, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Griffin,

This morning I read your article in the Los Angeles Examiner, eulogizing George Washington's Farewell Address and deploring the fact that Americans have strayed from his message. Well — your words left me cold. Cold because like many other high-sounding statements they boil down to a mere collection of empty words.

Where have you fellows been all these ten years? You men who claim to be part of these United States and who boast of the George Washington heritage. I have met and worked with many of you the last few years in various walks of life, both the great and the near great. I regret to say that I walked away in disgust because none of you measured up.

Statements like yours, Mr. Griffin, only stand out as indictments against you and people in similar positions. These utterances only prove that you, the native Americans, have been asleep on the job. You have forgotten the precepts this nation was founded on. If you had been alert, the things which have been happening in this country would not have come to pass.

Words alone are hollow! Especially when big words are used by little people. Words only give aid and comfort to those with self-imposed ego.

You say, "we Americans are living a heresy". That is not quite correct. Heresy means an opposing doctrine to what has been established. Americans have been living according to no doctrine, philosophy or purpose, unless you can call chasing dollars such. Americans have been living a hodge-podge of everything and nothing.

Led by fabulous ego-maniacs, adventurers and frauds, the American people have become masses being herded, coralled and driven. Weak, spineless or ignorant, they have submitted to outrageous sugar-coated schemes and fabrications. Thinking that that would cover up their own spiritual corrosion. But now after all the death and destruction they find that the veneer was too thin to cover the fermenting evil underneath. Only the smell is worse. Americans have even lost the sign of a healthy protest and with no honest and courageous opposition leaders to show them the way.

Mental pigmies but swollen with arrogance. Spiritual dwarfs but bulging with pernicious evangelism they have run rough-shod over this planet armed with platitudes and coined phrases which they never understood, neither were leaders who coined the slogans equal to the words they recited or sincere regarding their meaning. It is a case of the blind leading the blind.

Muscled giants but with pin-heads they have tried to buy the respect of the world. Too shallow to know that respect has to be earned, not bought or bartered. They had nothing else to give — so today they stand out as a spectacle of contempt in Europe and Asia. Their enemies hate them and their claimed friends scoff at them.

You do not like Nazism or Soviet Fascism and you say George Washington would "derive supreme gratification" from the wiping out of Nazism, and would "be sorrowful beyond expression" at Soviet Fascism. What a pathetic statement. Washington would never have taken this country to war against one dictator while co-habiting with another dictator. Neither would he have joined hands with imperialist nations and sent out innocent American youth to die to preserve their empires. Washington had an honest conscience, not one when convenient or expedient. He had repugnance to all evil, not hypocritical righteous indignation which compromises with one monster to allegedly destroy another.

No, Mr. Griffin, you know more than that, but perhaps you don't dare say what you really think. IT IS NOT POPULAR FOR MEN IN YOUR POSITION.

The hypocrites are not Hitler or Stalin or Churchill. They have all declared their position long ago. The arch-pharisees were born and bred in these United States.

What you are saying now this writer said in 1938, 39 and 40 on the lecture platform and whenever I could be heard. Those days I was still a British subject and amazingly it was native Americans who attacked me and tried to silence me.

Mr. Griffin, it was Americans who sold out this country. Americans who measure a man's depth of patriotism by the age of his citizenship papers: too smug to realize that many a traitor and reprobate has hidden behind a passport. Nor does a piece of paper create a loyal citizen.

If Americans had been worthy of the name, the Communists, radicals, internationalists and scum of Europe would never have been able to accomplish what they have. It was on the shoulders of Americans this vermin climbed to a position of effectiveness.

You speak of religion. What religion? Whose religion? My friend, religion is practice not professions. An abundance of churches does not mean an ounce of Christianity. A multitude of priests does not mean one iota of expression of the Christ principles. Remember the hills of Judea were over-run with priestcraft 2000 years ago! Today, who is able to tell a church from a synagogue from the language that is spoken?

You say that Washington's Farewell address is a "priceless inheritance". Indeed! But Americans have not used that inheritance or practised it. Like Christianity, it is given lip-service when convenient. Americans have dragged it into the dust. Like drunken sailors they have squandered it. Like inherited wealth it is not appreciated, because it was not earned. Therefore it has become a jewel thrown before swine.

Mr. Griffin, I know my words are harsh, nor are they directed at you PERSONALLY. It is not impulse that provokes these words. It has taken me twenty years of living with you Americans to say what I do.

Words will not do the job, sir, no matter how pretty. It takes courage to be a free man. A weakling does not want to be free. I wonder whether there is any courage or moral principle left. I wonder! There is no concrete sign yet.

I am mailing you a booklet entitled: LET'S GO TO WAR AGAIN. I give you permission to print it with no charge. I have others you may have. But you will not print them. It takes courage to print material like that. Anyway please read it. It will make you angry perhaps just as this letter did. I hope it makes you and many Americans angry enough to really wish to become AMERICANS AGAIN.

Sincerely yours,
SALEM BADER

CHICAGO,—The history books of the future will doubtless contain a colorful description of the now famous Nuernberg Trial. But, when those "vital" pages are filled they will lack many important side issues. Little known facts that weighed heavily in the background but were never revealed to the general public. Here follows a detailed personal experience of just one of those side issues. One that should convince you of the asininity of the trial from start to finish. A trial that was conceived in hate, born of evil, and propagated for only one reason — REVENGE. There was nothing fine, just or merciful about it. Therefore, it developed as an expensive international mess to show this planet—once again—how Jewry takes care of those who dare defy her plan for world domination. The irony of it all is how the victims pay for the show (financially and otherwise) and serve as puppets to carry out the horrible program based on the ugly philosophy of "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth".

It was a little over a year ago. "War Trial Aids Sought Here" read the headline appearing in the Chicago Herald-American. And continued with "Translators, interpreters and court reporters to take part in the war crimes trial of Nazi arch criminals such as Goering, Ley and Streicher, are being sought today at Sixth Service Command headquarters, where a representative of the War Department is interviewing applicants. If accepted they will be flown to Nuernberg as employees of the War Department, arriving October 15th. Applicants must be citizens and furnish birth certificate, baptismal certificate, citizenship papers or supporting affidavit. Fluent reading, writing and speaking both of English and German are required. Those interested should call in person at Room 1914, Civic Opera Building."

Feeling well qualified, I decided to investigate further. It was 10:15 the following morning. Entering Room 1914 I encountered a young lady about 19 sitting at a reception desk thoroughly absorbed in a current best seller. The gum she was chewing so viciously stopped snapping when I interrupted her reading and asked for further information concerning the news item. "Oh" she answered, "a Miss Wadica is in charge of that. No one here seems to know where she is or when she'll return".

"Have there been many applicants?" I queried further.

"Well, yes," she said indifferently, "there must have been sixty up here yesterday, but most of them were awfully old and few of them could speak English" (the age specified was under 45).

"That's odd", I said thoughtfully "how could they have been up here YESTERDAY when the announcement appeared in last evenings' paper?"

"I really don't know, said the little lady who by this time had slipped her book into the desk drawer, "they don't tell you anything around here. However," she continued "I don't think any of the people who were up qualified".

"What would you suggest I do?" I asked.

"Why don't you come back in an hour or so. Maybe by that time I'll know where to reach Miss Wadica. She may phone in".

I followed her suggestion and was back in "Room 1914" by 11:30. The little lady was no where in sight. Settled myself in a hard uncomfortable chair nearby and waited. Twenty minutes had elapsed when a willowy, attractive colored girl appeared upon the scene holding a bag of potato chips. "Is there anything Ah can do fo yo all?" she drawled slowly.

"Yes, I'm trying to see a Miss Wadica."

"Well that's her office oveh theh" she pointed out, "but she doesn't seem to be in it — does she?"

"No she 'doesn't'", I admitted agreeably. "Tell me is there anyone here who would be her superior . . . her boss?"

"You might see Mr. Rappaport. He's the manager of this depawtment."

"Where can I find him?"

"He's in an office down the hall a way. About three doors from heah", she answered directing lazily with the hand that held the potato chips.

Mr. Rappaport's desk was at the far end of a large unimpressive office occupied by six other ladies. After a "short" ten-minute wait I was extended the privilege of seeing Mr. Rappaport.

"I'm interested in the openings you have for the translator positions at the Nuernberg Trial", I began.

"Oh, I don't know a thing about that", he shot back, almost before I had completed my sentence. "They sent Miss Wadica here from Washington and she has charge of that. Moreover, I think she has all the people she needs", he continued.

"How is that possible? The notice didn't appear until last evening".

"Well she's making her selection among 'refugees'", he stated calmly.

"REFUGEES!" I repeated after him quite stunned at his matter-of-fact and brazen attitude on the subject. "How can she do that when according to the list of qualifications one must be an American citizen? I think Americans should be given preference".

"That is merely a matter of opinion," he said "after all, these people had to leave their homes and families for no reason of their own and now they should be given the opportunity to go back and see that these war criminals get what they deserve".

"Mr. Rappaport", I said firmly, "trials are conducted for the sole purpose of rendering justice and mercy. The aim, from an American point of view, is NOT to get revenge. Besides, there is only one way to determine who is qualified to handle the jobs, and that is through proven ability and intelligence. I fail to see how an applicant unable to speak English can serve as an interpreter".

This little speech toned him down considerably, but all he was able to do was hand me an involved government form to "fill out". Through all of this no one had asked my name. I was just an American citizen.

It was now after 1:00. I had some other appointments and could wait no longer. Decided to phone back later in the afternoon. At 3:00 I was able to reach the evasive Miss Wadica.

"You are too late", she snapped at me over the phone, "the tests have been given and my selections have been made".

Again I asked how that was possible. Also managed to tell her why I felt so well qualified stating that I was able to read and write German script in addition to understanding every dialect spoken in the German speaking areas of Europe.

"You can come in tomorrow and take a test for the war department, we might be able to use you later on".

"But I'm not interested in just any job the war department has to offer. I'm interested in being placed as an interpreter at the Nuernberg trial".

"Well you're definitely too late for that", she argued, "anyway I'm sure you wouldn't have been able to pass the test. It's very difficult. Only natives of Germany are able to pass them satisfactorily".

What was the TRUTH behind all of this? Was it another Protocol plan to get certain refugees back into Germany at the expense of the American taxpayer?

Your guess is as good as mine!

Who Makes America's "Foreign Policy"?

The book just published "Pearl Harbor: The Story of the Secret War" should be bought, read and digested by every patriotic American.

The book's author, George Morgenstern — a long time American newspaperman who directed as a captain the Marine Combat Correspondents during World War II—writes in a hard-hitting and hard-boiled style that its readers should demand from their Senators and Congressman another Pearl Harbor investigation—this time by a Congress controlled by Republicans—to dig out most, if not all, of the facts, which the New Dealers up to now have been able to conceal.

It will be interesting to Americans who hope to see the mystery of Pearl Harbor some day fully and finally solved to find out that:

"F. D. Roosevelt wanted war, with Japan or Germany or preferably both, although he full well knew that 80% of the American people wanted to stay out of the war.

"The Roosevelt Administration had been inviting a Japanese attack for months; matters had reached the ultimatum and deadlock stage between Washington and Tokyo by November 26, 1941, and yet Roosevelt refrained from alerting our Pacific outposts—though knowing that Japan would soon attack — so that our men would be caught asleep and Roosevelt could quickly fan up a war fever and smother all his critics with a howl that this nation had been treacherously assaulted. And this American "foreign policy" cost us on Dec. 7, 1941, 2,326 American fighting men in a surprise raid, the most disgraceful and most disastrous defeat ever yet inflicted on American armed forces by land, sea or air."

"At the press conference of December 31, 1946, announcing his proclamation "end of hostilities", President Truman was asked: "Does this mean the final end of the war?

"Mr. Big didn't savvy and replied: YES."

What has become of the boasted intelligence, wisdom, patriotism and integrity of the American nation and its alleged "statesmen" who, by virtue of gangster-control methods of politics which through the passing years have been substituted like demoniac changelings in the cradle of old American town meeting methods — have now been able to seize the helm of state, and pose as our government—although, God help us, they demonstrate increasingly, day by day, not only their utter lack of the basic principles of governmental science, but also their complete and cynical indifference to every basic principle of American justice and honesty?

Although our 135 million Americans accept with open mouth the shameless flattery of the politicians who tell them that they are the "best informed people in the world", yet we are now confronted by the digraceful fact that, without protest on their part, this same American people is now being made the dupe and victim of the most monstrous conspiracy of greed, buttressed by official silence, that has ever been put across the boards in even the city of Washington.

It appears indeed that the small minority which has invaded every government office, every trade union, every welfare agency and every progressive movement in our country has grown drunk with power, because when members of the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives went to Europe during the latter part of last year to view conditions there with their own eyes, demanded on their return a congressional investigation of the disgraceful conditions found there, President Truman blandly declared such demand for an investigation to be "unnecessary". — Upon what possible grounds can he assume such an utterly un-American attitude? Who does he imagine himself to be to prescribe for Congress what to do!

Senator Owen Brewster (R-Me), chairman of the Special War Investigating Committee promised his Senate colleagues a few days ago sensational new expose's and that, if allowed to dig deeper into cases of suspected war profiteering, he was prepared to press the White House for:

"All details on how the late President Roosevelt and his successor, President Truman, spent some $648,000,000 of secret funds granted them to carry on the war."

RUNNING FOR THE CYCLONE CELLAR

Four of the world's most powerful and influential Jews have resigned from four of the most important jobs. 1. Eugene Meyer has resigned as President of the World Bank. 2. Herbert Lehman has resigned as Director of UNR RA. 3. Bernard Baruch has resigned as head of the Atom Bomb Commission. 4. Rabbi Stephen Wise has withdrawn from the American Zionist Congress. What is behind these withdrawals from positions of conspicuous power?!

WANTED: 98 Senators . . . .

Dear Mr. de Aryan:—

Your shipment of No. 16 arrived yesterday afternoon and I had this morning already the visit of two newspapermen who wanted to know whether I assumed the authorship of the article "Wanted: 98 Senators and 435 Congressmen", and especially the first part, to which I replied in the affirmative.

I enclose herewith a copy of the adv. of the League for Peace with Justice in Palestine, which appeared in last Tuesday's issue of the New York Herald Tribune.

One of the newspapermen who visited me this morning said that this paper would be forced out of business, for having accepted such advertisement.

I shocked him by casually remarking that this adv. represented the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and that I had offered that League to personally canvass the members of the 80th Congress on this issue, when I would visit Washington with a delegation of the Citizens' Protective League Inc. and the German-American Republican League in order to demand a just peace for Germany in the name of one quarter of the entire U. S. population who are of German origin.

The late Dr. Shatara, formerly President of the National Arab League was a gentleman and a scholar, a good friend of mine who spoke years ago at the Citizens' Protective League's meetings on science and art. It always was an inspiration to listen to that cultured man's lectures on the Near East.

Very cordially,
KURT MERTIG

Dear Mr. Mertig:

As to the newspapermen's inquiry concerning the 98 Senators, they are wondering, like many of our readers, what you have up your sleeve. At present we have only 96 Senators.

Defense Fund for Joan McBride

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

It is too bad not more people have learned to watch and control their thoughts like you; that is to say, to work for the good of all humanity. I don't care to go to churches, but I do understand Jesus more and more. "What would it profit a man to win the whole world but lose his immortal soul?"

That reminds me of all the nations that try to get every drop of blood and goods from Germany. These slaveholders can only buy the material things of life with their money but that, what really gives joy to life, never. What do they know and understand of music, Bach, Brahms, Beethoven and so forth. It looks like the end of all of us. Here are $10 for Joan.

Two Monkeys: Ike and Marshall

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20. — At the newsreel theatre here, pictures of Generals Eisenhower and Marshall were shown, naturally with the principals speaking. Of course, I was interested to note what breed of cats these cold-blooded killers and leaders of mass-murder were. The mark of Cain is unmistakably imprinted not only on their foreheads but on their mouths as well. Watch that gangster-mouth in motion when talking. Also note the strong ape-imprint on that portion of the upper lip from the nose down.

While I was in Turkey I had been working under Sir William Wilcox, the "celebrated" irrigation authority of the British empire in those days, who had planned the Assuan Dam in Egypt and done great works in Asia. I rose under him from a straw-boss to a civil engineer within 6 months, without college education. I happen to be born that way. After working for more than two years, finally we came to the parting of the ways.

Sir William, while "lend-leased" by the British crown to Turkey to work out an irrigation project for Mesapotamia and harness the floods of the Tigris and Euphrates, which he failed to do as originally expected, was not working in the interest of his Turkish employers but with a flock of army and navy engineers, also lend-leased by Britain to Turkey, was preparing the British invasion of Mesopotamia.

When I had proof of the matter I confronted Sir William with it. We had grown fond of each other since he was a "genius" in engineering and I an apt pupil, so that a father and son-like affection existed between us. And Sir William made no bones about his treachery. "Kosti" said he, "I am a slave of my government (Britain). I am carrying out instructions."

"Well, sir, you may be a slave. I am nobody's slave and I don't betray my employers."

I severed relationship and left for India where I had several British secret service men on my trail day and night for seven months till I left Bombay for the U. S. A. in 1912.

Sir William's face, like Ike's and Marshall's, had the ape-mouth and the mark of Cain, so I recalled the incident of our acquaintance.

Radar Doesn't Land Plane Safely

OAKLAND, Calif., — A four-engine navy transport plane crashed and was destroyed by fire in making a radar-controlled landing at foggy Oakland Airport, and at least 20 persons were removed in ambulances to the hospital.

Hospital planes of this type officially designated an R5D by the navy, normally carry a crew of five and 41 passengers.

Witnesses said the huge aircraft crashed and then exploded.

"It burned completely up," a telephone operator at the airport said.

"One atom bomb would blow Washington, D. C., off the face of the earth thereby killing every governmental authority. Who would govern our Nation under such circumstances?" That is what U. S. Senator Wiley of Wisconsin wants to know, and will offer a special bill seeking to cover the meeting of such an emergency.

Is Arthur (the Voice) Bell a Swindler ?

Dear Kosti:

For some time I have intended writing to you, I read the "BROOM" and wait anxiously for the next issue. Blessings to you for your unbiased, fearless opinions on the serious questions that today are confronting the peoples of the world, they are indeed food for thought and as a grain of mustard seed will somewhere, sometime take root and bring to this dazed, confused humanity the Light of understanding.

I enjoyed immensely the pictures of Mr. Bell, while not being personally acquainted with Mr. Bell, I think anyone with plain common horse-sense could not help but feel compassion and love for him for his strength, fortitude and courage in standing on his convictions, regardless of the continuous hours of persecutions, harrassings, name calling and court proceedings that never give him one hour of relaxation and freedom to live as an individual. I honestly and most sincerely believe if the man were guilty of all those accusations the court and some of his supposedly sincere members are charging up against him, he would have given up long ago.

The weeks and months of continual questioning, never one moment of peace, quiet normal life in home or business, shows me more than ever his sincerity in the big task he has been destined to fulfill, and how anyone can doubt his honesty and sincerity is beyond me. Why—would any man give up his personal freedom, the privilege of leading a normal life with his wife, the comforts of a home and business unless he had a "cause" that means more to him than his personal freedom? And — how — he stands up under the strain of questioning, harassing, persecution day after day is proof enough to show that he is not a person that is interested in self but has something that is worth fighting for even if it means giving his very life for the cause. Every right-thinking person should bow their head in shame for not crying from the housetops the injustice that is being given that man. Mass thinking seems "To judge from appearances" looking to the "personality" rather than probing a little deeper to find the good hidden under the pile of evil charged against him by both the prosecution and the "dissenters".

All "evidence" that I have read, so far, shows and proves to me that Mr. Bell has something worthwhile to "give" to humanity, something that most of us are lacking in our "judgment" of another, and that is — we do not have the stamina and courage to stand firm upon the principle of the things we profess to believe in. We, as a people, are too wrapped up in our own selfish gains wondering how we can "get" something rather than what we can "give" in service and the material things that will benefit all people, everywhere. It looks to me like we are mostly "Indian givers". We give with one hand and hold the other hand out to get it back.

Of what profit is it to a man, if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?? I can truthfully say that I have had the privilege to study the materials that were given out in his course of instructions, and to me, anything the human mind would consider of value could not begin to pay for the truths of enlightenment given to those that could see the vision of the messages rather than just the "words" contained therein. Truly we have eyes but see not, and ears but hear not.

Seekers of spiritual understanding and truth, are not, if they be sincere in their desires, so deeply concerned about things of material value. For are we not promised by our Divine Creator, all these things, if first we seek the kingdom of heaven with all its righteousness!? That cannot be done unles we, as individuals, get a glimpse of the vision. I cannot do it for you, neither can you do it for me, we must recognize man as a free mortal agent, endowed by our Divine Creator, to choose yea this day, whom ye shall serve, so why blame someone else if you failed both yourself and your Creator, and think that you are being cheated out of something? We can climb only as high as our vision takes us, and we have no one to blame but our very own selves. As we still have to live with ourselves, we better be asking ourselves just how we started backsliding and turn about face, for "as ye sow, so shall ye also reap". Jesus Christ never used force, hate, nor passed bitter judgment and condemnation upon others. Should we not take the lesson thus given us and start house-cleaning with our very own selves? Man should first "to thine own self be true". Not weighed in the balance and found wanting.

We say that we want peace on earth, that we will love our neighbor as ourself, but actions speak louder than words, as shown by those of us that gave our solemn promise to cooperate and work together in a spiritual unit to be our brother's keeper, and show by our works and deeds, as well as our words that we were sincere. Now I solemnly ask those of us who so sincerely made those promises "who" has failed? Truly not Mr. Bell, for he is still taking the rap for those of us that failed to live up to the principle of truth teaching. It shows plainly we never even got a glimpse of the "principle", but rather wrapped up in our own warped little personality of "self" and the benefits that we expected in a material sense of security.

Shame on us! Is all I can say. Where is our spineless, half-hearted, wishy-washy, glorified selves leading us, into the chaotic, confused chasm of destruction that is awaiting to engulf us. And then we shall have time to think how we ourselves failed to live up to the very things we so earnestly dedicated our lives to bring into being—"the brotherhood of man".

Inclosed is a small gift ($10), use as you want, for yourself or to send your paper to someone whom it will benefit.

Blessings and many of them to you,

Always, — — J.M.S.

Clipping John L. Lewis' Eyebrows

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Your explanation of the contrast in pictures of Arthur L. Bell is greatly appreciated. I couldn't for the life of me see how in the samhill those two pictures could possibly be the same man unless one had been taken many long years ago. Or else the younger looking one was taken after rubbing in some of Winchell's "Jergen's Lotion". I'm sure you could make a deal with that Kike to use those pictures for that purpose. Which reminds me that he is all fed up on Yiddish jokes which seem to be getting under his thick skin and causing a lot of irritation. But I'm sure that if he will just rub some of that wonder lotion he peddles every Sunday night into that alligator hide of his that he will soon be at peace with the world again. But there I go drawing a word picture of an emotional acrobat who talks tolerance out of one corner of his mouth and malice out of the other at the same time.

There is no man alive today who can equal Walter for being a truth distortionist. Or at least from all reports Hitler is dead.

Now on those Bell pictures you explained something there, both in the photographies and your observations, on what emotional stress and strain will do for a man. You also shed some light on what proper physical grooming will do for the mental and spiritual well-being of a soul. I shall send a clipping of your psychological observations along with the "before and after eyebrow trimming", to John L. Lewis.

If you could transform one Arthur L. Bell from the personification of dejection into the movie star he appeared to be after the eyebrow trimming, just think what that might do for the soul of John L. Lewis who in turn might have a change of heart and decide to give the country back to the people. I am just wondering if the United States Senate would appoint you custodian of the tonsorial well-being of those shaggy-haired old buzzards in the U. S. Senate; if it wouldn't in the long run be a great moral and spiritual uplift to our Nation. But as the cockroach said to the spider, you just can't tell a speck about a fly.

Hanish-Parrots vs. Mazda-Worship

By C. LEON de ARYAN

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 21,—We used to carry in our issues an advertisement for the Mazdaznan Press, giving a list of books and literature for the information of those interested to know more of the inimitable Science of Life which is the Aryan Religion and Birthright. That advertisement was not paid for in cash, nor inserted by the Mazdaznan Press. We did it from a sense of loyalty and duty to give credit to the source whence we had benefited.

Conditions in this world are in continuous flux. One current proceeds progressively to materialize more and more of the divine Thought that originated the world, and us in it; the counter-current retrogresses towards animal-material tendencies, setting up obstacles in the path of human unfoldment towards perfection.

Whenever the time comes to take far-reaching steps, coupled with irretrievable decisions, I am exceedingly conscientious to make sure that no mistake occurs. Hence, when I returned from the D. C. jail in 1943 and in the summer thereof was informed by "Elector" Emanuel Bachman, of the Los Angeles Temple Associates of "God", that I was persona non grata as a speaker at the Gahanbar, I merely absented myself, as I do in all such cases, and took my time to get at the root of the matter.

Since that time, two more of the de Aryan family, Fred and David, have had similar experiences, namely, that both Emanuel Bachman and Henry Sorge are not intent on upholding the Spirit of Mazda here in the U. S. A. but are merely "keepers of the sacred scrolls", indulging in and perpetuating the outer form of the ritualism, but are entirely ignorant of the substance of the Religion of Mazda.

Emanuel and Henry having been placed in charge of the "scrolls" and the "temple estates" left by Dr. Hanish, the man who had studied for 25 years in Zoroastrian temple schools the Thought of the Aryan religion, I, naturally, was deferring to them with the respect due their "apostolic" succession. But persistent repetition of the same "authoritarian" ignorance, arrogance and appeasement policy of these two "leaders" towards animalism and military beastliness of the times, has forced us to take our stand. Since our prime allegiance is to Mazda and His Religion and not to a gradually decadent cult which as its object has the aping of the ritualism introduced by Dr. O. Z. Hanish in good faith, we now have to choose between submission to the veto-rule exercised by "Elector" Bachman, a half-Jew, over the affairs of the alleged Associates of "God", or follow the Spirit of the Times in loyalty to Mazda. Having been reinforced by Fred's and David's experiences that this Jew is sacrificing the spirit and trading it off for material "advantages" of the moment, we now are free to expose the faker and present the true religion, leaving it to our readers to compare the two and decide for themselves which is what.

Of the Los Angeles Associates, Philip Ramus and Kurt Graichen are meagerly attempting to stay within the Spirit of the Covenant. But because Dr. Hanish left the Jew in charge of the "estate-properties" and Henry has less backbone and spirit than a jelly fish, Kurt and Daddy Ramus follow their sense of loyalty to the "master's" memory, especially because "money talks" and the Jew holds the purse-strings.

Fortunately, I am not under any obligation whatever to the "little master" or any other person on earth or elsewhere. During his lifetime I disagreed with him openly and am glad I maintained my allegiance to Mazda foremost, for it has enabled me to THINK from original premises. Now that my time has come, I shall present the essence of the message entrusted to Dr. Hanish to be brought to America and the world, in a language which will dispell some of the misunderstandings which now are running amuck, destroying the work the "little master" was sent here to do. The fact that I have no hesitancy to speak of him as a fellow worker, not as a superior, and to point to his mistakes as a fellow scientist corrects the errors of his predecessors, does not at all imply that I consider myself superior to Dr. O. Z. Hanish, least of all does it mean that I belittle his message. On the contrary. He was handicapped in various ways and did a marvelous piece of work, considering the human material he had to deal with and his own physical condition.

But since the mass of those who hear a great teaching have the tendency of mistaking their own imperfect concepts of the infallible doctrines for the truth thereof, we have to restate the doctrines from a different angle, that the new approach may help to check the misconceptions that are palmed off by such ignorant authoritarians as Emanuel and Henry, who imagine that the office of "keepers of the holy scrolls" endows them with wisdom to veto the very religion of Mazda.

Said Eleanor Roosevelt on December 20th: "Harold Stassen's statement on liberalism, when he announced his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination, might have been written by one of the numerous young Democratic liberals. And taken by itself, it would lead one to believe that, as far as liberals in either party are concerned, their philosophy is much the same." Note: Final proof necessary to establish the fact that Stassen is the New Deal fifth columnist within the Republican Party.

Soviet officials promised Elliott Roosevelt while he was in Moscow to sell a million dollar's worth of his book (which is pro-Russian and even critical of the U. S. A.) translated into the Russian language.

General Graves, who has charge of the atom bomb, reports that he is convinced that information concerning its secret nature has leaked out because America has failed to act promptly on information such as was uncovered by the Canadians. The General said: "Nobody in the U. S. seems to be interested, however, in the fact that our secret is being stolen."

SAVAGES WILL KILL

Christ's Golden Rule Series—No. 3

"Can people just stop war by deciding to stop war?" asked Gladys.

"They have to stop doing the things that break out in war. Mere getting together and making pious covenants is not going to stop it."

"The matter is not as simple as that. Killing lice, vermin and wild beasts would not produce wars because there is no breach of faith. They are on notice that they are not wanted and, as far as we are concerned, they incarnate at their peril. We and they cannot prosper together in the same environment. But animals you raise for slaughter are invited to come here. In fact you select the brood and raise it. They believe you love and care for them while you murder them and betray their faith in you."

"This spiritual breaking of faith, then, engenders war?"

"Naturally, Gladys. You build up in yourself the notion that animals do not feel, do not think, don't keep faith, have no love, no loyalty and that to exploit them for your imaginary profit is why God placed them here."

"But that is what the Bible says, does it not, Kosti."

"Dear Gladys, you will either learn to love the Truth or you'll depend upon books. The Truth is greater than all books. Books are records written by priests to exemplify what they want to impress upon your mind. So you'll find in Genesis that man is to live on herbs and trees bearing seed, while the rest is food for animals. Later on Moses, and his gang of cut-throats, revised the original truth and rationalized around it to sanctify the Kosher-gang's racket of slaughtering animals. This, of course, perverts the whole concept of God. From paradise, where men and animals live in peace, men eating seed bearing vegetation and animals the herbs, suddenly the Jewish idea of a sacrifice-loving 'deity' introduces violence and murder."

"But are we not built like pigs, omnivorous, rather than vegetarians?"

"No, Gladys. We are not built like animals at all in spite of the fact that our bodies are animal-like. That's what Mary Baker Eddy found out and by denying animalism she built up her system of C. S. thought as a religion."

"This takes me by surprise, Kosti. We look like animals, reproduce, eat, sleep like animals, yet are not?"

"No, because in us lives divine Consciousness, the Christ, conscious as the Child of God. This is the human factor absent in the animal. The beast has feeling, has thought, has loyalty, faith, fear, hunger and lust, yet it lacks the creative genius, the ingenuity we possess. We can recreate a whole new world and we Aryans have the task of creating a war-less world. Now we must learn to understand that God Almighty in His infinite Love and wisdom certainly had sense enough to give us a physical organism that needs not murder, break faith, use violence to survive. Hence, God being wise, resourceful, the very essence of Love and compassion, He gave us a heart that revolts at killing, bloodshed and treachery, so that as we follow the noblest impulses of divine Love we even improve our bodies by vegetarian diet. In God's plan of Life everything dovetails, there is no contradiction, no violence, no duplicity, no breach of faith and ideals."

"So you mean to say that if we want to eliminate war and all of us prosper we must become vegetarians?"

"Not exactly. You cannot make vegetarians out of people by bribery, even by bribing them with the outlook upon a warless future. You have seen how rotten modern Christianity is. They claim to worship the Christ, yet they murder people by burning Japs alive in caves with flame-throwers and killing hundreds of thousands with A-bombs. Not even the last earthquake in Japan killed as many as the 'Christian' Harry Truman killed with 2 bombs."

"Then how will we ever succeed?"

"When those who elect to be vegetarians because they love God and cannot conceive of His being an imbecile who gave us bodies that must murder to live by, when such people collaborate, naturally, the Spirit of Love, the Golden Rule of the Christ, will teach them and show us how."

Gen. Marshall Promoted, May Indicted

WASHINGTON, Attorney General Clark announced the indictment of former Representative Andrew J. May, Democrat of Kentucky, and three officials of a wartime munitions combine on charges of conspiring to defraud the government.

Clark said those named with May in the indictment, returned by a grand jury here, are:

Henry M. Garsson, Murray Garsson and Joseph F. Freeman, all former officers and employes of the Erie Basin Metal Products, Inc., Elgin, Ill., and of Batavia Metal Products, Inc., Batavia, Ill.

He said one count charges that May, wartime chairman of the House Military Committee, "did agree to receive" from these firms "a total of $53,634.07."

Andrew May committed the unpardonable crime of taking American tax-payers money. Gen. George Catlett Marshall committed the heroic and patriotic feat of "LETTING the Japs attack first," as his Commander-in-Chief and Churchill had planned.

May took money, Marshall took the lives of the boys at Pearl Harbor by not phoning his warning; and Marshall agreed to have planes and materiel shipped to England instead of Bataan, so that our boys were left an additional prey of the Japs. So, naturally, according to the Rule of the Knife, the most beastly wholesale murderer is promoted to the office of Secretary of State.

But will someone say: "Must we not defend our country?" You would have nothing to defend against if you did not send military missions to Japan, China, Russia, South America, to train their people in the "Art of War". This has been done by the USA for the past century and continues up to now. Wars are artificially created, just as such "geniuses" like Marshall are produced at public expense. Korea was invaded and conquered by the Japs under guidance of American officers.

While the German "War Criminals" were executed at Nuernberg and thousands are continually tried and shot, the American War Planning Criminal convicts himself out of his own mouth. Writes Drew Pearson from Washington:

> When the American Army captured German files in Berlin, one of the most amazing cables they unearthed was sent by Nazi Consul General Hans Borchers in New York, May 13, 1941, regarding a dinner table conversation General Marshall had with a high American society woman. The cable read as follows:
>
> "Mrs. Herbig told that she sat at a dinner between General Marshall and a member of the government and the possibilities of war in Europe were discussed and both stated that it was definite that Greenland, Iceland, and the Azores should be used as bases for troops in order to facilitate invasion of Norway, Northern France, Spain, and Portugal. An attempt was being made to select qualified elements for a fifth column in Spain among prisoners and immigrants."
> At that very same time American newspapers were being bitterly condemned when some of them hinted that the United States was planning to use Iceland and the Azores as military bases.

The dying New Deal Congress is saddling the incoming Republican Congress with radicals and fellow travellers. Twelve men have already been named for $10,000-a-year jobs as technical advisors to members of the Eightieth Congress, which convened January 3. Of the 12, four have records of affiliation with organizations labeled as offshoots of the Moscow party line by the House Committee on un-American Activities or organizations left of center.

Churches in Armament Racket

By Dr. E. M. KAMMEYER

In the wake of "Thyssen-the-Jew" to Thyssen supported by Papal Finance that appeared in the BROOM, comes this earnest appeal for information from Colorado:

"Is it actually true the POPES lend money to these different 'Great' industries?

"My husband has always been a Catholic and I am a convert. We love the Church very much. But we certainly don't think very much of this if it is really true.

"Have you the dope on it? Or where can we find the information?"

"Ask me again in a thousand years" was the answer given by a Chinese sage (probably Li Hung Chang) to a young French scientist who inquired, about anno 1900, as to the wise man's opinion of the French Revolution. "This is just like yesterday — in a thousand years we will know."

It is only since 1881 that the Archives of the Papal Minister of Finance, the Camerarius at Rome, were opened to researchers—and only from the beginning of that office (1017) to the time of the Reformation. Much of that information is contained in two huge volumes published only 1934 by Columbia University Press entitled PAPAL REVENUES IN THE MIDDLE AGES by Professor William E. Lunt. That study would indeed be an eye-opener to many a one.

No! The Finances of the Church of our time will not be revealed to the public gaze for centuries to come — if then. BIG BUSINESS is not in the habit of "telling" its inner-most secrets, not even to its random stockholders who bought their stock "on Faith". And the Church during the last 1000 years, has become BIG BUSINESS with all the appurtenances of such. 'Twas always thus.

Strictly esoteric at first, the religion of the oppressed and suffering, who prayed to "Our Lord the Sun" up to the fifth and even sixth century of our era when the Liturgy was altered into "Our Lord the God". Its aspect changed entirely, becoming exoteric, that is to say, worldly, the religion of an oppressing and exploiting Power, with vast holdings of Real Estate (tax free, of course), while taxing its flock, exacting tithes, Peter's pence, raising armies, making wars, engaging in Power-politics on a grand scale, converting the heathen by the sword, borrowing money and now lending money from its surplusses. In one hand the Sword —in the other the Cross! Suggested reading: Pope Innocent III, by Joseph Clayton, veteran British historian, passed "nihil obstat" by the Papal censor, with the imprimatur of the Archiepiscopus Milwaukiensis, in 1940. This first popular biography in English of "the greatest pope of the Middle Ages" is anything but esoteric. Hence: "what can you expect!" Yes, SECRETS will out, ultimately, and centuries later we are able even to glorify our misdeeds. We then say: "Oh! it was the trend of the times." (Will some future historian "glorify" the now 'hush-hush' Roseveltian Pearl Harbor affair?) One wonders. (Editor's Note: That criminal and his stooge Marshall are glorified already. Look at the "national shrine" in Hyde Park.)

Now as to the Papal backing of the Thyssens: that was an "open secret" at that time, known to the insiders, just as in England it was an "open secret" among financial and industrial circles that the Church of England was putting its surplusses into the great armament firm of Vickers-Armstrong. — Good Business! AYE!!

POPE IS ANTI-SEMITIC

Ignoble Marshall Petain claims that he received sanction from the Vatican when he instituted anti-Jewish laws in France after the Nazi-French armistice . . . The correspondence between Vichy and Rome allegedly confirms this statement . . . The whole story was printed a few months ago in the French press and reprinted in the London Jewish Chronicle.

JEWISH A-BOMB SCIENTISTS

We like this from the opening paragraph of an article in the Nation, entitled "This Brain for Hire". "Memo to a would-be war criminal: If you enjoy mass murder, but also treasure your skin, be a scientist, son. It's the only way, nowadays, of getting away with murder."

Rifling Parcel Post to Germany

Dear Sir:

Can I do anything about the packages I send to Germany, most of them are opened and something taken out from the post office help. Please let me know. — G. C.

* * * *

Dear G. C.:

I know of nothing you could do regarding the rifling of packages during P. O. transit to recipients in Germany. The Morgenthau Hate Plan has so indoctrinated the military and federal personnel in Germany that they consider it fair loot to rifle everything.

Protest to your Congressman and Senator.

Georgia Reaffirms the "Republican Form of Government" . . . Reds Adore Arnall; "Send Him Back to Harlem," Shout Georgians

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (Special)—Self-governing people of Georgia have, through their legally-elected REPRESENTATIVES in their legislature, ELECTED Herman Talmadge as governor, and, upon taking the oath of office, the latter has been duly installed as governor and today occupies both the governor's office in the State capitol and the executive mansion.

All this strictly in accordance with State Law and the Federal Constitution.

The Supreme Document has a clause which has never been enforced: "The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government." (Art. IV, Sec. 4).

A "republican" form of government means self-government THROUGH REPRESENTATIVES, where representatives select the executives.

A "democratic" form of "direct" government is fit only for a very small state or town, where everybody knows each other, said THOMAS JEFFERSON.

On the other hand, said Jefferson, a republican form of goverment, where people select their REPRESENTATIVES, whom they can know personally, is best for a big republic, stretching across thousands of miles.

The legislatures of all the original 13 States (except Connecticut) elected the governors. No "demagoguery" then.

Our New Deal Socialist despotism has so DEGRADED the "representative" system, reducing it to a "rubber stamp," that many Americans distrust it, and are "shocked" at the action, about TWO TO ONE, by which the Georgia Assembly (161 to 87) elected Herman Talmadge as governor in place of his duly elected father, Eugene Talmadge, who died before he could be re-installed as governor.

The late Eugene Talmadge won the white vote of last year's primary by nearly 100,000 majority over his opponents (including former governor Rivers); but the new Negro vote went in a solid gob (100,000) to Arnall's stooge. Talmadge had a plurality of the popular vote, which would have won for him in any Northern primary, and an overwhelming majority of the unit convention votes. Then in November, it was a walkaway.

TWO SUGGESTIONS

To CONGRESS and the "UN": Adopt the national militia system for the peace-loving nations; let the U. S. build up a pile of atomic bombs, for use only when the "UN" orders them to be used on a criminal nation's war plants.

TO THE G. O. P. SENATE: Put the radical New Deal socialist Senator Morse of Oregon and "crackpot" Ives of New York in the doghouse; the former for trying to dictate to the G. O. P., and the latter for his subservience to the labor czars of New York and to minority groups. Neither one is a true Republican.

Behind the Scenes in Washington . . . . New Camarilla?

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (Special)—"If the Republican Congress would only study 'The Daily Worker' and 'PM' and vote against everything these socialist journals advocate, they would please the AMERICAN MAJORITY, and they could not go wrong," said a "nationalist Republican" Congressman to this writer the other day.

I asked him, "Is there a legislative CAMARILLA at work here among our Republican lawmakers, as there was (and still is to some extent) in the whole time of the Roosevelt-Truman executive department?"

"I am not sure of the extent of its power, but it appears it has formed or is forming, behind the scenes. I am becoming fearful," he replied.

No one could question the loyalty of this man. He has been strong in his anti-Newdealism and anti-Communism, and has made Red enemies aplenty.

Together we agreed on the following FACTS:

(1) VANDENBERG, who long leaned slightly to the left, was never a fighting opponent of the New Deal and who swung from nationalism to internationalism, was accordingly put on the American UN delegation, and has now been made PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.

(2) JOE MARTIN, G. O. P. House Leader for many years, never once "went to town" in opposing the New Deal, allowing courageous fighters like Hoffman of Michigan and Short of Missouri to be sniped and the greatest Anti-Red of them all, Hamilton Fish, to be sacrificed, without raising a chirp in their behalf.

In great emergencies, when our country was being sold down the river by the New Deal aliens, Martin was "the little man who wasn't there".

He said "the world moves and I move with it". As a "leader," he should have called caucuses, built party morale, summoned great outside Anti-Newdealers to show us where we were going. He didn't do it. Few caucuses in 14 years . . . . HE HAS NOW BEEN GIVEN MORE POWER THAN ANY SPEAKER IN 35 YEARS!

(3) CHARLES A. HALLECK of Indiana, nominator of the socialist WILLKIE as G. O. P. candidate in 1940 and friend of "Peewee" Dewey, the successor to Willkie as the darling of the New York aliens and Russia lovers, has been made MAJORITY LEADER!!

(4) POOR STRATEGY in the Senate has resulted in the alienation of the Southern ANGLO-SAXONS, who had formed an informal COALITION with the Northern ANGLO-SAXON Republicans in halting New Deal assaults on Americanism.

When the mob of Newdeal Negroes and Red Jews arrived on the scene at the opening of the Senate, the Northern Anglo-Saxons fled in terror, surrendered to the "Daily Worker" and "PM" and even held the Red rope with which the fanatics were preparing to kill State's rights and "lynch Bilbo".

The bust-up of the North-South coalition showed up recently, when the Senate Republicans were able to keep the special War Investigating Committee by a slim 47 to 45, WITH THE AID OF ONE LONE SOUTHERN DEMOCRAT, O'Daniel of Texas. If O'Daniel had voted with the Democrats, the G. O. P. WOULD HAVE LOST.

Three NEWDEAL "REPUBLICANS", Morse of Oregon, Aiken of Vermont and Tobey of New Hampshire, deserted their party, as was expected.

G. O. P. LEADERSHIP, by knifing the Southern Senators in the vain hope of getting the votes of Red Negroes and Jews, has lost all hope of passing any legislation over Truman's veto, and apparently is willing to sell out the white Americans who put them in power last November!

IT MAKES A PATRIOT SICK AT HEART!

Mass Deportations a Bitter Tragedy

By DR. ALEXANDER BOEKER in PEACE ACTION

RUSSIANS LEAVE TO POLES EXPULSION FROM EASTERN GERMANY

Expulsions from Eastern Germany began last, because for some time these areas remained under direct control of the Red Army. While Russian occupation of Silesia, Pomerania, etc., was accompanied by the now familiar rapings and lootings—apparently carried out as part of official policy—and by the shooting of landlords and business leaders, it was on the whole characterized by a policy of non-interference in the daily lives of the local inhabitants. As soon as the Russian commanders turned over their authority to imported Polish Communists (there were no native Poles in most of these areas, Upper Silesia being the only exception), expulsions commenced and were carried thru with the utmost brutality. Almost every one of the thousands of expellees interviewed has stressed the fact that in many cases nearby Russian military commanders intervened in behalf of the local German population. The expellees therefore left with the feeling that their real enemies are the Poles, not the Russians. It is almost certain that this was a deliberate policy on the part of the Soviet leaders, who may expect to make political capital out of it at some future date when, against all present appearances, they decide to return Eastern Germany to the Germans and encourage the expulsion of the unfortunate Poles who have since settled there.

DISLOCATION OF POPULATIONS INCLUDES MILLIONS OF POLES

The total number of Germans affected by this policy is around 18,000,000, of whom approximately 3,000,000 have by now been eliminated by death and other causes. To realize the magnitude of the dislocation of population, add to this figure the millions of non-Germans that have been subject to the same brutal policy: Approximately 3 to 4 million Poles from east of the Curzon Line, 700,000 Hungarians in Czechoslovakia, at least 100,000 Slovaks in Hungary, and perhaps a large, though as yet indeterminate, number of Hungarians in Roumania and Yugoslavia.

No wonder the Christian Science Monitor headlined a recent discussion of this problem thus: "Twenty Million Broken Ties, Cruelty, Deportation: Can This Win Peace?" The author of the article, R. H. Markham, wrote: "Whether peace will be served by cruel reprisals upon helpless women and children may be doubted. And that security can be won by acts that arouse mass hatred is far from certain."

"ORDERLY AND HUMANE TRANSFERS" NOT OBSERVED IN RACIST VENGEANCE

The Potsdam Declaration stipulated that "population transfers", as they are euphemistically called, should be carred out in an "orderly and humane" manner and with due regard for the capacity of Germany to receive the expellees. It may be questioned whether the forcible removal of people from their inherited homes can ever be "humane", but it is certain that the actual mode of expulsion as witnessed in Eastern Europe during the past 18 months is a bitter mockery of this pious injunction. It would be a great mistake, however, to lay all the blame for the abysmal sadism that accompanied the expulsions solely at the door of the Soviet Union and its Slavic satellites. If only by consenting to it in the first place and never once protesting these cruelties but instead participating in the conspiracy of silence, the United States and the leaders of American and British public opinion bear an important share of this blood guilt.

It would be unprofitable to enter into a detailed account of atrocities committed by Polish and Czech extremists and hoodlums bent on racist vengeance upon the unfortunate expellees. Suffice it to say that Mr. Churchill himself spoke of "tragedy on a prodigious scale," that Foreign Secretary Bevin referred to what he had seen in Berlin among the streams of Eastern refugees as "the most awful sight you could possibly see," and that Anne O'Hare McCormick, one of America's ablest and most responsible journalists, frequently protested the "nightmarish conditions" and unspeakable barbarism of the expulsions.

NO DISTINCTION BETWEEN NAZIS AND NON-NAZIS

In the majority of cases, the expellees seem to have been given only half an hour or less to get ready for the trek. They were forbidden to take along any money or jewels or any of their belongings, except a few clothes, of which they were usually robbed on the way. Thus expulsion was invariably accompanied by almost complete confiscation of all property. The Czech Government has recently made some minor modifications of this rule, but not until after the majority of Sudetens had been driven out. No distinction is made between Nazis and non-Nazis. In Silesia even the German Communists are being driven out by their Polish Red brothers. Doctors and priests are no exception to the rule.

CONCENTRATION CAMPS REVIVED IN "LAND OF THE DEAD"

Where expulsions cannot take place fast enough to suit the new rulers of the land, the local population is rounded up and confined in concentration camps, which rival Buchenwald and Belsen at their worst. The two largest and most notorious camps are located at Maehrisch-Ostrau in Czechoslovakia and at Kottbus in Eastern Brandenburg. Both camps have been visited by American intelligence officers in civilian clothes, who, it is hoped, will not much longer preserve their silence. The death rate in these camps is reported to be appalling, with children and the aged among the first victims.

The male members of the German communities in the "Land of the Dead", as Eastern Germany and the Sudetenland have come to be called in Europe, are as a rule not expelled with their wives, parents, and children. They are interned in separate camps whence they are distributed as slave labor. Large numbers of them have been shipped to Russia as "gifts" of the Polish and Czech authorities.

Charles G. Smith Taking Legal Action to Clear His Name

Investigation Exonerates Nationalist of Any Connection with Persecution of Three Christians

NEW YORK (Special). — Charles G. Smith, prominent nationalist Republican of Queens county, states that he is starting legal action against a N. Y. lawyer, because of alleged criminal libel against him, contained in a habeas corpus paper filed in the case of Jewish persecution of the three Christians, Mertig, Elmhurst and Maertz, and published in "The Broom".

The document that Smith was somehow tied in with the "framing" of the three persecutees, "arrested" by Isadore Ginsberg and tried, without benefit of a jury, before prejudiced Jewish and pro-Jewish judges.

Mr. Smith vehemently denies the charge as utterly false and malicious, and proposes to seek redress in court, even if it be a Jewish court.

Your correspondent has made an extensive investigation of the charges against Mr. Smith, and has become convinced that Smith is INNOCENT; and for the following reasons—facts capable of proof:

1. Smith, a lifelong "nationalist" and opponent of Bolshevism since its inception, attended the nationalist meeting in Queens, in October, 1945, as a spectator. The only part he took in the meeting was as a friend and attempted protector of the three Christians under attack.

2. There is not one scintilla of evidence to suggest that Smith knew or ever spoke to Ginsberg, the self-admitted instigator and prosecutor; or that he had more than a sight acquaintance with Lawyer Barr, who happened to be in the court room at the time of the unlawful seizure of Mertig and Elmhurst.

3. There is no evidence whatever that Smith ever knew, ever met or ever saw any of the personnel of the Anti-Nazi League or any other Jewish or pro-Jewish organization; or contacted them in any way.

4. By reason of his prior friendship with two of the three Christians, he was in position to do them great injury if he had been the sort of man that the alleged libel suggested.

5. Smith appeared in court to testify FOR the men, and was astounded that their lawyer introduced no evidence whatever in their behalf.

6. Smith's life is an "open book", and he showed the writer a mountain of documentary evidence of honorable conduct — for the U. S. government and private employment as well.

7. Official records show that he was born in London of Latvian "white Russian" Christian extraction; that his wife is of Latvian German Lutheran family; that both came to America when young; and their good citizenship has never been questioned.

8. Close friendship with Christian Americans of the highest character and official position for as long as a generation, who vouch for Smith's probity and dependability, confirms his character and contradicts the calumnies.

9. Red enemies of Americanism, such as the "Daily Worker" and "New Masses", have smeared Smith, along with Elmhurst and other nationalists.

10. Smith's known character is that of a tolerant, broad-minded, educated, humanitarian CHRISTIAN gentleman, who lives the "good Samaritan" life.

Your correspondent is firm in his belief of the truth of the foregoing statements, and is glad to present them in an endeavor to undo the wrong done to Mr. Smith by the publication of unjust and unfounded rumors.

"Fascism" is the title of a new book being written under the direction of a young Jewish 'leftist' from Columbia University. He has been hired by the Library of Congress to supervise a so-called research pamphlet on Fascism. An attempt will be made to smear the Nationalist movement and certain Nationalist personalities. The Library of Congress recently has been loaded with Reds.

Butcher Knife Rules the World

By C. LEON de ARYAN

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24 — L. D. Beckwith, editor of the FORUM, Stockton, Calif., foolishly maintains that wrong economics is the cause of war.

The "money reform" addicts maintain that usury is the cause of war because unlike Beckwith, who sees in the land-title holder's privilege of shifting taxation to industry and its workers, the "moneyites" claim that all evil results from the privilege of bankers to create fiat money which they pass on to the public, even though in equity this bankers money has the same inflationary and criminal effect upon national finances as the passing of counterfeit bank notes.

I have always said that greed and treachery by itself, as described by Beckwith, or the "moneyites", could not produce slaughter without the predatory lust to kill in the morons who pass themselves off as humans. Hence the beastly lust to kill is the cause of wars and all other ills are merely contributory factors which alone would not result in carnage.

We have instituted courts to adjudicate differences to prevent civil war and the same can be done on an international scale, but it never works as long as the beastly lust to use the knife in place of intelligence, to adjust conditions, prevails.

George Dixon, writing from Washington, illustrates this fact by quoting Rear Admiral Theodore D. Ruddock during an inspection of the huge 16-inch guns at the U. S. Naval gun factory.

"Not too long ago they were considered the most deadly things known to warfare," said Admiral Ruddock. "Now, some people are trying to say they are obsolete.

"Frankly, I don't know. But I think we should keep on making them until something better is proved.

"We've got to resist this temptation to discard tried weapons until something better is proven. The principles of warfare don't change much.

"Even today, with atom bombs, rockets and all the frightening new things, we haven't discarded man's oldest weapon — the knife. And I don't think we ever will. It is still the basic weapon of warfare.

"The man with the knife is the one who does the conquering. Nations can be softened up by bombs and rockets but it requires the man with the knife to go in and actually take the country.

"Warriors exhaust their other weapons but they always retain the knife. The knife—be it sword or bayonet or dagger or scimitar—decides the ultimate fate of battle".

Naturally, as long as people are predatory animals who use the butcher knife to kill, to eat, when the earth could offer them paradise in its abundance of fruits, vegetables, grains and nuts, the predatory beast in human shape will resort to murder to decide who rules.
